

EXAM PREPARATIONS

Please note the following:

The examination paper may contain similar questions to those you may have written for your assignments. You should consider answering simpler questions first and then move to more challenging ones later. Kindly note that this is not a scope but guidelines for your exam preparations. We hope this will benefit you in your studies.

Possible Exam Essay Themes

- Two approaches/techniques to teaching adult learners reading
- How will you teach adults to use these two techniques
- Process of teaching adult learners how to write
- Why you should teach adults writing.
- Definition of concepts (Cross the module)
- Principles and purposes of assessment
- Placement of learners
- Differences between formative and summative assessments

Analyse and know your Questions

Analyse

Break an issue down into its component parts, discuss them and show how they interrelate

Argue

Make a case, based on an appropriate evidence for and/ or against some given point of view

Compare

Identify the characteristics or qualities two or more thing(s), also point out the similarities

Contrast

Point out the differences between two things

Define

Make a statement as to the meaning or interpretation Of something, giving sufficient details, to be distinguished from similar things

Describe

Spell out the main aspects of an idea or topic. Spell out sequence in which a series of things happened

Discuss

Investigate or examine by argument, key points and possible interpretations, giving reasons for and against. Draw a conclusion

Explain

Tell how things work or how they came to being the way they are.

Identify

Pick out what you regard as the key features of something, perhaps making clear the criteria you use

All the best in your Examinations from the AB71517 team