1. Find the sentence in the first paragraph of chapter two that illustrates that Golema Mmidi could be the perfect home for Makhaya?
   ‘_________________________________________________________________________________________________________life’

2. Golema Mmidi ________________________________________________________________ were permanently settled on the land’

3. Name the Paramount Chief of the area ________________________

4. Name his brother / the Chief of Golema Mmidi ________________________

5. Who is the ‘strange, massively built, blue eyed young man’? _________________

6. What were his intentions in coming to Botswana?

7. Why was Sekoto threatened by these ideas? Provide two quotes to justify your answer.
   a.

   b.

8. ‘One thing was sure of – either the young man would be completely destroyed, or he would
   ____________________________________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________________________________________instigated’

9. How much land was provided to Gilbert Balfour?

10. ‘Botswana is a country where people ________________________________ live’

11. Comment on the allegory* that Dinorego relates to Makhaya. What do we learn about the Botswanan people?
12. Chapter two deals a lot with the uneducated coming into contact with the educated. At this stage of the novel, what do you think the author is trying to do with this concept?

13. Why do you think it may be important that Dinorego see's the world in black and white – 'good and evil'? If your not sure, just take a stab in the dark.

14. ‘This country appeals to few people ... there is too much ____________________________’

15. What does Golema Mmidi mean?

16. ‘He was not big, he was a ____________________’

17. In his own understanding Gilbert was struggling in Golema Mmidi because he lacked three characteristics. These are:
   a.
   b. c.

Homework

18. ‘This is Utopia Mack. I’ve had the greatest dreams about it.’
   a. define utopia

   b. This comment sounds sarcastic / ironic but it is not said in jest. What do we learn about Gilbert from this statement.

19. Are there any hints / ideas about gender roles in this chapter? What was the role of the woman in Botswana society?

20. Who will win the heart of Maria – Makhaya or Gilbert?

* Allegory - a story in which the people, places, and things represent general concepts or moral qualities.