

FINAL ASSESSMENT

The aim of this assignment is to assess your understanding of the role of accountancy professionals in society and business (Learning area 2). You are required to link such role of accountancy professionals to the challenges posed by fraud and corruption in society and business (Learning area 3) as well as to the principles of ethical behaviour (Learning area 4).

REQUIRED:

You have been requested by Unisa to share your experience with the content of the module CAS1501, Perspectives on Accountancy, with a new intake of students. You have to share your experience by means of a presentation and supporting text. Your presentation and the supporting text should provide the new intake of students with a holistic view of the module's content. Provide your answer in the following format:

Part 1: Presentation

Prepare a presentation on a single page that reflects:

- your perception of the most important message reflected in each of Learning area 2, 3 and 4;
- the interplay between the topics covered in Learning area 2, 3 and 4.

(Your presentation should be prepared in Word. It should not exceed a single page, while it should cover all the aspects listed above.)

Part 2: Text document

Prepare a single page, text document that supports your presentation, and clearly indicates:

- your perception of the most important message reflected in each of Learning area 2, 3 and 4;
- the interplay between the topics covered in Learning area 2, 3 and 4.

(Your text document should be prepared in Word, in Arial using 12 pt and 1,5 line spacing. It should not exceed a single page, while it should cover all the aspects listed above.)
