Land registration in SA (SA system): is based mainly on legislation and is nominally negative, but has some characteristics of a positive system.

Positive characteristics of the SA land registration system

Ø State investigates and examines deeds before annotating the register.
Ø State accepts liability for shortcomings in specific, limited circumstances
Ø State completes and maintains a register of title
Ø Linked to a cadastral system of maps and diagrams
Ø Linking of transactions occurs
Ø High degree of state interference
Ø State does not record deeds at face value
Ø State provides owners with security of title

Negative characteristics of the SA land registration system

Ø State does not guarantee correctness of data or accuracy of the register, BUT parties do rely on the correctness of information.
Ø Transfer is effected in the new deed and a new deed must be executed for each transaction
Ø State incurs no liability for inaccurate records - If there are defects in title, a party may claim delictual or contractual remedies against the Conveyancer, however the State is only liable for damages in terms of section 99 DRA, if it can be proved that:
   a) the loss resulted from an act/omission of a registrar or an official employed in a registry; and
   b) it was committed in bad faith or as a result of a failure to exercise reasonable care and diligence.
When will the SA register not reflect the true registered owner?

1. Where land is expropriated.
2. Where ownership in land is acquired by prescription.
3. Where there is a marriage in community of property.

Although the State does not guarantee the correctness of the Deeds Registry records, it does provide security of title and it is not necessary for parties to take out private insurance - titleholders and third parties do rely on the correctness BUT are third parties who rely bona fide on the Deeds Office records protected? Eg where land is transferred and the bond in not cancelled.

View 1: NO - the Transferee acquires the land subject to the bond. (Barclays National Bank Bpk)

View 2: YES - land title automatically includes a tacit guarantee of indisputable title.

Supreme Court of Appeal - Legator McKenna Inc: provides authority for the fact that even if the original cause of a transaction, which is registered in the Deeds Office, is defective, if there is a real agreement to transfer ownership and both parties have performed in terms of that agreement, then the transfer is valid. This is known as the abstract theory of passing ownership.
THE CONVEYANCER

A Conveyancer is an admitted attorney who has:

1. specialised in the preparation of deeds & documents destined for registration in the deeds registry
2. passed two additional national conveyancing exams
3. been admitted to practice as an attorney by the High Court
4. been enrolled on an electronic register of conveyancers and has provided a specimen of his/her signature.

The general rule is that a mere attorney may not act as a Conveyancer, however, in terms of s 102 DRA, a Conveyancer is a person practising as such in the Republic, and includes a person admitted as an attorney in terms of the relevant Transkeian legislation and physically practising as such within the area of the former Republic of Transkei.

Duties of the Conveyancer

1. Ensure valid deed of alienation
2. Manage financial matters and the transaction process
3. Prepare deeds and documents and take responsibility for correctness of facts
4. Link simultaneous transactions (Deeds)
5. Lodge deeds
6. Execute and register deeds in the presence of the registrar of deeds, on behalf of the transferor

1. Ensure valid deed of alienation

Section 2(1) Alienation of Land Act: No alienation of land will be of any force or effect unless contained in a deed of alienation, signed by the parties, or their agent, acting on their written authority.

Section 28(2) of the Alienation of Land Act: even if s 2(1) is not fully complied with, where the transferee has performed in full and the transfer is registered, the alienation will be valid. (Legator Mckenna Inc case).

2. Manage financial matters and the transaction process

The Conveyancer must:

- ensure he has enough funds.
- ensure that the purchase price will cover the capital and interest to cancel the existing bond or that the seller has alternative funds - no property may be transferred unless the existing bonds have been cancelled or the property released from their operation.
- ensure that the transfer duty, municipal clearance and/or levies to body corporates, deeds office levies and transfer fees have been paid.
- he must ensure that there will be sufficient funds on registration of transfer to honour these undertakings (agents commission).
- present guarantees and undertakings for payment.
3. Prepare deeds & documents

All documents drafted and lodged by conveyancers must have a signed preparation clause, except affidavits, and conveyancer’s certificates.

“To prepare” = to check the contents and sign the preparation clause (certify the correctness of the facts - S15A(1) & (2) and reg 44(A)). This places responsibility for the documents prepared with the conveyancer, not with the ROD.

Section 15A: by signing the prep clause, the conveyancer accepts responsibility for the accuracy of the facts as prescribed by regulation 44A.

General Rule: only a conveyancer may sign the preparation clause. (Deed of Transfer, Partition Deed of Transfer, Deed of Cession, Mortgage bond, CRT’s)

Exception: (may be prepared by an attorney, notary or conveyancer): Power of Attorney, Applications, Consents, Partition agreement.

If the preparation clause is signed by an attorney/notary, the fact that the he is a practising attorney/notary must be confirmed by a practising conveyancer, who must countersign the preparation certificate. (Reg 44)

Notarial bonds are not conventional bonds and do not contain a preparation clause – they may only be drafted and executed by a notary, not a conveyancer.

Take responsibility for correctness of the following facts Reg 44A & S15A:

a) All copies of documents are identical on date of lodgement.

b) All applicable townships and conditions have been correctly brought forward from the previous deed into the new deed/certificate of title.

c) If documents are signed by an executor, trustee, tutor, curator, liquidator or judicial manager (business rescue practitioner) / a person in any other representative capacity, that the person - has been so appointed,

- is acting within his powers and

- has furnished security to the Master

d) The names, id no’s / date of birth, and marital status of any natural person is correctly reflected in the deed;

e) If deeds are signed on behalf of a company, CC, church, association, society, trust or other body of persons, or an institution, that

- the signatory is authorised (by resolution) and

- the transaction is authorised.

f) The particulars in a new deed, certificate of title or bond, have been correctly brought forward from the special power of attorney or application.

Rules applicable to the registration of deeds (FORMAT):

1. good quality A4 paper to be used;
2. printing or typing must be of good quality;
3. the top half of the first page is to be left blank for endorsements;
4. blank spaces are to be ruled through
5. a 4cm binding margin on the left-hand side;
6. Only black ink to be used;
7. copies (the originals of which are lodged in the government offices) must be certified by a notary, conveyancer or head of that government office;
8. all pages must be consecutively numbered;
9. deeds and documents must be printed or typed on one side only;
10. every deed and document must disclose the place and date of execution;
11. numerous parties must be numbered – only exception is if married in community of property and partnerships.
12. each property must be numbered and described in a separate paragraph;

4. Linking

Linking means the linking of deeds to be lodged in the Deeds Registry by means of a number/letter code (barcode) to ensure that the deeds are registered simultaneously as a batch. The documents are then lodged on the same day in separate lodgement covers. The deeds will then be examined and registered simultaneously as a batch. The linked deeds are all deemed to be registered only when the last act of registration in the batch has been signed by the registrar of deeds. Where one of the deeds is not in order, the whole batch is rejected. Deeds are principally linked for financial reasons.

Linking must be indicated by the conveyancers on the front covers of all the linked deeds.
- If the covers do not indicate a linking, but each shows only a single transaction, the transactions will be registered individually.
- If the covers of the linked batch do not correspond, they will be returned to the respective conveyancers with a note “simuls not lodged”.

Linking is normally done in numerical numbers but you can add linking in roman numerals in pencil – this allows the register to pass any deeds in a batch that are in order and reject only those who aren’t.

5. Lodgement

This is the formal handing in of deeds at the deeds registry for purposes of registration.

Regulation 45(1): Deeds, bonds, etc must be lodged by a conveyancer practising at the seat of the deeds registry, for execution or registration (as opposed to preparation of the deeds, which may be done by any SA conveyancer).

Most deeds registries have a tracking system for lodged deeds, referred to as DOTS (Deeds office Tracking System): A sticker with a bar code is attached to the bottom right-hand corner of the lodgement cover, and it allows one to track the progress of a particular deed through the process.

6. Execute and register deeds

After ± 5 – 6 working days, the deeds should “come up on prep”. This means that the conveyancers have a final opportunity to make amendments and corrections as required by the examiner’s notes and to check their finances before the deeds are registered.
After this the deeds are ready for execution and registration. Execution involves the respective conveyancers of the simultaneous transactions signing their deeds in the execution room in the presence of the Registrar of deeds. Once the registrar affixes his signature to the deed or to the last deed in a batch, then the deed or batch is deemed to be registered (section 13(1)).
THE REGISTRAR OF DEEDS

Duties of the Registrar of deeds

1. Take charge of and preserve all records
2. Examine all deeds
3. Record Interdicts
4. Keep registers
5. Give access to public registers and records

The examination of a deed entails:

1. checking that all the legal provisions relating have been complied with
2. checking and disposing of interdicts
3. endorsing the deeds and documents to give effect to such registration or law
4. updating the deeds registry records

Examination does not include examination of the facts (coveyancers responsibility). However, the Registrar of deeds must still check deed conditions to ensure that there are no prohibitions and that any necessary consents have been lodged.

Interdicts: usually prevent persons from dealing freely with their properties.

The powers of the Registrar of deeds: are set out in section 4 DRA:

1. The ROD may require the production of proof, by affidavit or otherwise, of any fact necessary to be established in connection with any matter or thing sought to be performed in his registry. The ROD may refuse registration pending production thereof.
2. The ROD may rectify deeds relating to an error in the name or description of any person or property, or the conditions affecting the property.
3. The ROD may issue certified copies of deeds.
4. The ROD may order that certified copies be obtained to replace illegible or unserviceable deeds or documents.
5. The ROD may submit reports to court relating to applications for performance of any act in a deeds registry.

Liability of the Registrar of deeds

As a general rule, there is no liability for the State or the Registrar of deeds, as we have a negative registration system in SA.

Section 99 DRA: the government, the registrar and officials employed at the deeds office will not be liable for damages sustained by any person due to any act or omission on their part, unless:

1. the act or omission was mala fide, or
2. the registrar and/or official did not exercise reasonable care and diligence in carrying out their duties.
THE REGISTRATION PROCESS

Day 1

- The conveyancer lodges at the lodgement counter in the deeds registry.
- Deeds are sent to the data section (scanned and computer data printouts are made of the existing deeds office data relating to the persons and property). These printouts are inserted into the lodgement covers.
- Then proceeds to the distribution room (scanned and sorted and distribute among the deeds controllers).

Day 2

The deeds controllers examine the deeds for the first time:
1. They endorse the deeds to reflect the transaction to be registered.
2. They check interdicts against the persons and property.
3. They raise notes in respect of any errors or oversight. - The conveyancers have to comply with these notes in order to have the deeds registered.

Day 3

- The deeds controllers return the deeds to the distribution room,
- Deeds are distributed to the chief deeds controllers (examine them again).
- They will indicate whether the deed it has been rejected (by endorsing it with a capital R) or passed (by initialling the cover).

Day 4

- Passed deeds proceed to the assistant registrar who monitors them to ensure that he agrees with the chief controller’s decision.
- Rejected deeds are sent to the delivery counter (go back to conveyancer),
- Deeds then proceed to the preparation room.

Day 5

- Conveyancers have 3 days within which to comply with the notes raised by the deeds controllers, failing which the deeds will be rejected.
- When the notes have been complied with, the deeds are checked by the data typists for any new interdicts. This process is called “black booked”. If new interdicts that are applicable have been received, the batch is rejected. If not, the deeds are sent to the execution room.

Days 6 – 9

The conveyancer has 3 days within which to appear before the ROD to register or execute the deeds.

Day 7

After execution, the deeds are scanned, numbered, sealed and dated. (The registrar’s seal and his signature - authenticates the deed so that it may serve as an official public document.)
Days 8 – 9

The data section captures the information on the deeds registry computer database.

Day 10

Any specific office instructions from the deeds controllers in respect of the deeds are attended to.

Days 11 – 13

- deeds are captured on microfilm or scanned into the computer database,
- then the go to the delivery room for delivery to the lodging conveyancer, who in turn delivers the registered deeds to the client.

The certificate must:
1. be valid for 60 days from date of issue
2. certify that all amounts due have been paid, during the two years preceding the date of the application for the certificate.

SOLVENCY AND INSOLVENCY AFFIDAVITS

When a person is sequestrated, he remains insolvent until the court issues a rehabilitation order, or until he is automatically rehabilitated ten years after the sequestration.

When the registrar of deeds is informed of a person’s sequestration, by the registrar of the court, a sequestration interdict is noted against that person’s name in the deeds registry. This interdict prevents the person from personally dealing with his property.

Upon sale of a property it is common practice for the owner of a property to lodge a solvency affidavit, to the effect that he is not insolvent, has never been insolvent and that any court order to that effect does not apply to him but to someone else with a similar name.

If the person declares in the solvency affidavit that he was once sequestrated, but has since been rehabilitated, the registrar of deeds must determine whether ten years have passed since the sequestration:

- If ten years have passed, the person may deal freely with the property.
- If the ten-year period has not expired, section 58 DRA must be complied with – endorsement.
DECEASED ESTATE TRANSFERS

General rule: where the property formed an asset in a joint estate, the surviving spouse of the deceased, who owns an undivided half share of the property, must always be joined in his personal capacity with the executor of the deceased spouse’s estate.

The surviving spouse does not need to participate when (Exceptions to S21):
(a) Where the executor is only dealing with the share of the deceased spouse,
(b) Where the land has been sold to pay the debts of the joint estate,
(c) Where there has been a massing of the joint estate and the surviving spouse has adiated,
(d) Where the transfer is in favour of the surviving spouse, or
(e) Where the surviving spouse has signed, as executor.

In other words, if one of the above five exceptions is applicable, it is only the executor of the deceased’s estate who passes transfer.

For estate transfers, the possible causa (recital) include:

1) testate succession
2) intestate succession
3) sales by the deceased during his lifetime (mention date sold in recital)
4) donations by the deceased during his lifetime
5) sales by the executor
6) transfers in terms of s 18(3) of the Administration of Estates Act (the value of the estate is relatively low = representative not executor).
7) take-overs in terms of s 38 of the Administration of Estates Act (where the Master allows the surviving spouse to take over all or part of the estate assets at a valuation).
8) sales by an executor in a deceased insolvent estate in terms of s 34(2) of the Administration of Estates Act (where the liabilities in the estate exceed the assets - no sequestration order because the deceased is not formally declared insolvent).
9) property registered in the name of the survivor of spouses who were married in community of property
10) property registered in the name of a spouse who was married out of community of property, whose spouse died and massing of estates had taken place
11) transfer from an estate of a black person whose estate is being administered in terms of the Black Administration Act according to customary law.

Drafting of the causa of an estate transfer

The following information, if applicable, should be mentioned:
1) The date of death of the testator
2) The way in which the land devolves
3) A short explanation of why the inheritance devolves on the transferee
4) A short explanation of how testamentary conditions are complied with
5) Transfer from a massed estate
PARTITION TRANSFERS

The purpose is to divide co-owned land between the co-owners in such a way that each of them receives a demarcated piece of land in lieu of their respective shares in the land.

Partition vs Subdivision

Subdivision: the land is “split” into two or more separate pieces. The original owner is still the owner of the land, but now of demarcated portions of the original piece of land, still with the original combined extent. The owner may obtain a separate deed for one or more of the portions or may transfer one/more directly to a new owner. The remainder of the land remains registered in the name of the original owner. Joint owners of a piece of land may also subdivide it, whereafter those same joint owners will still be joint owners of the new portions of land in the same proportions.

Partition: the whole of the jointly owned property is divided between the co-owners. Each party to the partition must acquire a defined portion of an undivided share he previously held. A single owner cannot partition his property – that would simply amount to a subdivision.

THE PARTITION DEED: This must adhere strictly to the partition agreement. All the existing title deed/s to the land held in co-ownership are replaced by the deeds of partition transfer. New deeds of partition transfer will be issued individually to each of the co-owners - there will be as many deeds of partition transfer as there are co-owners.

Bondholder’s consent: If the share of one of the parties to a partition is encumbered by a bond, the partition transfer cannot be attested unless the bond is lodged at the ROD for disposal (cancellation, release or substitution).

Section 27(1) DRA: the lawful holder of the bond may consent in writing both to the partition and to the substitution of the mortgaged shares for the land awarded to the mortgagor on partition.

Mineral rights: Since no legislation, the ROD has no authority to register any transactions relating to mineral rights, except to deregister same. If the title deed contains a condition relating to the reservation of mineral rights, the condition must remain in the deed. All mineral right conditions in existing title deeds must be omitted when drafting new deeds of transfer.

Conditions: no partition transfer may vary or affect the conditions, unless it has been stipulated that these conditions may be varied, defined or limited by the partition agreement, and by the consent of interested parties.

Praedial servitudes - Parties to a partition may not create/amend a praedial servitude. The granting/amendment of such servitude can be a condition of the partition, but must be created in a notarial deed, not in the power of attorney.

Personal servitudes – These can be created in the power of attorney.

Consideration: Must be disclosed = transfer duty
EXPROPRIATION TRANSFERS

A notice of expropriation must be served on the registered owner stating the date of expropriation and compensation to be received. No transfer duty is payable. The expropriating authority acquires the property without the consent or cooperation of the owner. This is why it is not transfer in the true sense.

Requirements for the registration of an expropriation transfer:
1) land must be authorised by law
2) only the State, a public or local authority may expropriate land
3) the owner must have been notified in writing of the expropriation
4) the date of effect of the expropriation must already have passed
5) the ROD must receive a certified copy of the notice of expropriation (note an interdict).

Restraint on the expropriating authority: The EA may not transfer, create rights or deal with the land, until the land has been registered in its name.

Restraint on the registered owner:
- Where all the land is expropriated, the registered owner is prohibited from transferring / otherwise dealing with the land.
- Where only a portion is expropriated, the registered owner may transfer / otherwise deal with the land, however this must be made subject to the expropriation by bringing it in as a condition in the new deed.
- If a portion of land is only provisionally expropriated, the registered owner may not deal with that land until it is made final or withdrawn.

TRANSFERS BY VIRTUE OF AN ORDER OF COURT
(prescription or paid for property but seller wont transfer / cant be found)

S14 DRA: transfers and cessions of real rights in land must follow the sequence of the successive transactions by which the right to ownership devolved from one person to another.
BUT: S33(1): If a person acquires the right to ownership in land (other than by expropriation) and cannot register it in his name in the usual way, he may apply to the court for an order authorising the registration.

The new owner can’t deal with the property until he obtains the property title.

DEEDS OF GRANT
(ownership is transferred from the state to another person)

S3(1)(c) DRA: provides for the registration of deeds of grant issued by the State or any other competent authority.

There is no preparation clause and the duties and responsibilities do not apply. No power of attorney is required.

Unalienated state land may only be transferred by a deed of grant and a diagram of the land must be annexed (never been previously registered).

Acquired state land is land that has previously been registered and which has subsequently been transferred to the State. May be transferred by DOG / DOT.
TRANSFERS BY ENDORSEMENT

GR: ownership may only be conveyed by a DOT. Exception – endorsements.

1. Section 16: ACQUISITION OF LAND BY THE STATE OR A LOCAL AUTHORITY (Proviso):

   a) a local authority acquires all the land held under one title deed from another local authority in terms of any law (eg. sale), or
   b) the State acquires all the land held under one title deed (eg. expropriation),

   No registration fee is payable.

   Requirements: The application must:
   - describe the property,
   - state the name of the registered owner, with reference to the title deed
   - announce that the State or local authority has acquired all the land, and
   - state the causa for the transfer.

2. Section 24BIS(2): DISSOLUTION OF A FIRM / PARTNERSHIP

   Where land which belongs to a firm/partnership is allotted to ALL the members or partners, on dissolution the land vests in the individual members/partners.

   If the property is not allotted to ALL the partners, a deed of transfer must be used. You can’t endorse.

3. Section 25(3): ESTABLISHING THE IDENTITY OF CHILDREN

   If land is registered in the name of the parent / guardian of children during their minority, to be held in trust for those children and the identity of all the children has been established, an endorsement can be affixed to the effect that the land or real right is being transferred to the parent / guardian in trust for the child/children. This does not depend on them attaining majority.

   After registration, the child(ren) will be able to deal with the property as if they had obtained transfer in their names by means of a deed of transfer or cession.

4. Section 58(2): REVERSION OF PROPERTY TO AN INSOLVENT

   When immovable property vested in a trustee in terms of the Insolvency Act and is later re-vested in the insolvent, the insolvent may not deal with that property until the registrar of deeds makes an entry on the deed.

   If the insolvent is rehabilitated by the court within 10 years, the rehabilitation must be noted against the name of the insolvent.

   An application is required to be lodged by the insolvent or trustee and must identify the property concerned and refer to the agreement that the insolvent entered into with his creditors, with the Master's approval.

   The effect of registration is that the rehabilitated insolvent will be able to deal with the property freely and without the consent of his former trustee.
5. Section 45: TRANSFER BY ENDORSEMENT IF ONE SPOUSE DIES

Section 45(1) DRA applies where
- there is immovable property, a registered lease or a bond,
- which forms an asset in a joint estate, and
- the surviving spouse has lawfully acquired the share of the deceased.

If the surviving spouse remarries in community of property, before registration, section 45 can be used to register an undivided half share to the new spouse.

6. Section 45bis(1)(A): TRANSFER OF PROPERTY BY ENDORSEMENT WHERE SPOUSES ARE DIVORCE

An application in terms of section 45bis(1)(a) only applies if
- immovable property / a lease relating to land settlement / a mortgage bond
- formed an asset in a joint estate of spouses to a marriage in COP, and
- one of them has legally acquired the share of the former spouse on divorce.

Application for endorsement must be made by the person who is entitled to the property according to the divorce order and settlement agreement.

7. Section 45bis(1)(B): TRANSFER OF PROPERTY BY ENDORSEMENT IN TERMS OF A COURT ORDER DURING MARRIAGE

Where, during the marriage in community of property, the court issues an order in terms of subsections 20 or 21(1) of the Matrimonial Property Act for the change of the matrimonial property regime, and orders that the immovable property, lease or mortgage bond be granted to one of the spouses, then a transfer by endorsement in terms of section 45bis(1)(b) can be effected.

8. Section 45bis(1A)(a) OR (b): VESTING IN BOTH FORMER SPOUSES

The application is used when former spouses, who were married in community of property, are both entitled to the property after
- dissolution of the marriage OR
- their marital property regime changed.

Application is made by both spouses.
SUBSTITUTING TITLES / CERTIFICATES OF REGISTERED TITLE

A CRT is a deed in which the ROD certifies who the owner of the property or share in the property is. It is issued on application by the owner. No transfer of ownership takes place.

VARIOUS DIFFERENT CRT’S

1. Section 34(1): CRT OF AN UNDIVIDED SHARE

If a person is a joint owner of an entire piece of land or a portion thereof, and all the land is held under one deed by all the owners, he can apply, for a CRT for his undivided share. He must obtain a CRT before he can transfer his fraction.

2. Section 34(2): CRT OF AN UNDIVIDED SHARE IN THE CASE OF A LOST OR DESTROYED DEED

Where the client’s copy of the deed has been lost/destroyed, he can apply, for a CRT of an undivided share in land, without having to apply for a certified copy of the lost or destroyed deed.

The owner of the last remaining share under a lost deed must apply for a certified copy of that deed in terms of regulation 68, not for a CRT.

Section 34(2) vs Regulation 68

A s34(2) CRT is issued to a co-owner of property who holds the property together with other co-owners by virtue of a deed that has been lost or destroyed. The lost deed remains valid in respect of the other co-owners.

In terms of reg 68(1) DRA, a certified copy of a lost or destroyed deed may be issued to single / joint owner/s of a piece of land who apply for the issue of a copy of the property title deed to replace the original which has been lost or destroyed. All the owners of that piece of land must apply for the reg 68 copy. Once the copy has been issued, the original deed becomes null and void.

3. Section 35: CRT OF AGGREGATE SHARES

The owner obtains a single deed in respect of his total share in a property / properties, instead of separate titles in respect of the fractions he owns.

Joint owners may also follow this procedure. If different properties are involved, the joint owners can use this procedure only if their shareholdings are equal. If their shareholdings differ, each must obtain his own CRT.

Certificate of consolidated title (S40) vs CRT of aggregate shares (S35)

Consolidated title: - the separate properties are not only held under one title deed, but are actually merged into one property.

In terms of S35, the owner obtains a single title in respect of his total share in a property / properties – the properties are not merged into one.
4. Section 36: CRT OF ONE OR MORE PROPERTIES HELD UNDER ONE TITLE DEED

If a person holds two or more pieces of land or undivided shares in land under one deed, he may obtain a CRT in respect of one or more of those pieces of land or undivided shares. At least one of the pieces of land or shares must continue to be held under the original title deed.

This section is often used when an owner of more than one property held under the same deed only wants to mortgage one of the properties.

5. Section 38: CRT TAKING THE PLACE OF A LOST OR DESTROYED DEED (get a certified copy of the lost title deed)

A CRT where the client’s (transferee’s) as well as the deeds registry’s copy has been lost or destroyed.

To do this, the owner must first notify all interested parties of the intention to apply for a CRT. Only if there are no objections to the issue of such deed, may he apply for the CRT to be issued by the registrar of deeds.

Written application must be made by the owner for the CRT to be issued and an affidavit in terms of regulation 68(1) must also be submitted.

6. Section 39(1): CRT TO CORRECT AN ERROR IN REGISTRATION

Where, by reason of an error, the same land has been registered in the names of different persons. The registrar of deeds can only issue a CRT to the latter party, who now holds the property under two deeds, after one of the two parties has transferred the land to the other party by means of a rectification transfer.

7. Section 39(2): CRT TO OMIT CONDITIONS THAT ARE NO LONGER APPLICABLE

When conditions in a deed have been cancelled or have lapsed as the result of consolidation/merger. The only way to remove them is to obtain a CRT. The aim of such a certificate is not to have the conditions cancelled, but to remove from the deed those conditions that have already lapsed or been cancelled.

8. Section 43: CRT OF A PORTION OF A PIECE OF LAND

CRT’s in terms of section 43 must be taken out in the following instances:

1) When the owner of a piece of land wants to mortgage/otherwise deal with a specific portion of that land he must first obtain a CRT – except where he wants to transfer it.

2) When an owner of a township or settlement wants to deal with an individual erf.

3) An owner of a property who divides it into two and wants to transfer the remainder must first obtain a CRT for that part of the property that he is retaining, before the transfer of the remainder can be registered.
9. Section 46(4): CERTIFICATE OF TOWNSHIP TITLE

Where a township is being laid out on a portion of land held under a deed, the Registrar of deeds may not open the township register, unless a certificate of township title has been issued in respect of that portion. Alternatively, a CRT in terms of section 43(1) can be issued.

10. Section 18: CERTIFICATE OF REGISTERED STATE TITLE

Often land owned by the State, which has never been alienated, has never been surveyed and is therefore not registered in any deeds registry. Before such land can be registered, it must be identified on a general plan or diagram approved by a Surveyor-General and a certificate of registered state title must be obtained if the state intends creating or dealing with or disposing of any real right in any piece of unalienated state land.

11. Section 40: CERTIFICATE OF CONSOLIDATED TITLE (CCT)

A CCT consolidates two/more pieces of land belonging to the same owner, into a single unit of land - the separate properties are merged into one.

Requirements:
1. The constituting components:
   a. There must be a common boundary.
   b. The pieces of land must be recorded in the same property register.
   c. The pieces of land must be situated in the same administrative district.
   d. The pieces of land must be owned by the same person.

2. Consolidation diagram: A Surveyor-General approved diagram of the pieces of land must be prepared

3. Certificate: Where a registered lease/other real right (excl a bond), whereby another person holds a real right in the land (e.g. a servitude right over a portion of the land to be consolidated):
   a) a diagram indicating the portion to which the lease/real right applies must be attached to the relevant deed;
   b) diagrams reflecting the portion concerned must be produced;
   c) the diagram of the consolidated property must clearly indicate (by means of dotted lines, etc) that portion of the consolidated property that is affected by the lease/real right.
MORTGAGE BONDS

A mortgage bond:
- provides the mortgagee with a limited real over the thing of the mortgagor, which affords the mortgagee a preferential claim to the proceeds of that burdened immovable thing, and
- prevents the debtor from alienating the immovable property without the knowledge and consent of the mortgagee.

A notarial bond serves as security and is registered in the deeds registry. The security under a notarial bond is movable property and is executed before and attested by a notary public.

Structure of a bond

1. Preparation Clause

2. Heading

3. Preamble
The preamble must contain:
1) the name of the conveyancer and details of the power of attorney.
2) A description of the mortgagor

4. Acknowledgement clause
Acknowledge the indebtedness and gives the reason for the debt.

5. Mortgagee (bondholder)

6. Amount
The act does not prescribe the amount to be disclosed but in practice it is because a deeds office registration fee/levy is payable, which is calculated on the amount of the secured debt.

Where a bond secures future debts, the fixed sum must be disclosed as an amount beyond which future debts will not be secured by the bond.

7. Cause of the debt or causa of the bond
The reason e.g. money lent and advanced

8. Waiver of legal exceptions
The National Credit Act (“NCA”) prohibits the use of waivers and same are void. A debtor was previously entitled to include certain exceptions whereby certain legal defences would be excluded, thereby placing the burden of proof on the mortgagee to disprove allegations. By waiving these exceptions, the mortgagor could not raise the defences against the mortgagee if the latter demands payment.

9. Interest and repayment clauses
10. Cost clause
The cost clause secures the payment of any costs and expenses the creditor may have incurred, for which the mortgagor is liable, over and above the original amount of the debt already secured by the mortgage bond.

This clause secures the mortgagee’s contributions on behalf of the mortgagor in regard to insurance premiums, taxes, etc, as well as legal expenses incurred in suing for the recovery of the amount due under the bond. The additional amount usually constitutes 20% of the capital sum.

11. Ranking
A mortgage bond does not have to disclose the order in which it ranks over the property.
If the mortgagee has not waived preference in respect of his mortgage bond, it’s rank against earlier or subsequent bonds is in order of preference according to their date of registration.

Where two or more mortgage bonds enjoy the same ranking or preference, the same is said to be pari passu (on an equal footing).
If two or more bonds are passed on the same day by the same mortgagor, over the same property, the registrar must, if each bond does not disclose the order in which it is to rank, note on each bond the exact time at which he affixed his signature thereto.
If two bonds are to be registered simultaneously and are deemed to rank pari passu.

A mortgagee’s consent is not required in respect of the waiver of preference.

Any charge (the state has a hold on a property registered under a charge number) against land must be mentioned in the ranking clause of a bond because previously registered charges enjoy preference over the new bond.

12. Property and security clauses

13. Special conditions of title
If someone wants to mortgage land held under existing special conditions limiting the rights of the owner, the ROD may require those conditions to be set out in the bond.

14. Conditions
As a general rule, any condition may be inserted in the bond or an annexure to the bond. Manifestly illegal or dishonest conditions may not be inserted.

The following conditions are prohibited by the DRA:

1) No mortgage bond may be passed in favour of two or more persons, where the share of one holder ranks prior in order of preference to the share of another; nor may any transaction be registered which would have the effect of giving preference to one share over another in the bond (S55(2)).
2) No condition may be included in a bond which purports to impose upon a registrar any duty or obligation not sanctioned by law (Reg 35(6)).
3) The insertion of a general clause attempting to simultaneously bind immovable and movable property of the mortgagor is prohibited (S53(1)).

4) A condition in terms of which the repayment of the debt or a portion thereof by a licence holder in favour of the holder of a wholesale liquor licence, beer-brewing licence or sorghum brewing-licence within a specified time is void.

5) An agreement stating that, if the debt is not paid by a certain date or the mortgagor is otherwise in default, the mortgagee may hold or keep the security as his own property, is known as a pactum commissorium. Such agreement is unlawful and unenforceable.

6) A condition in the bond stating that the mortgagor may not repay the debt before a certain date, if it is coupled with a pactum antichresis, is void. A pactum antichresis is an agreement which gives the mortgagee the use of the property in lieu of interest.

7) A condition in a bond based on an agreement between the mortgagor and mortgagee that the hypothecated property can be sold in settlement of the debt, without recourse of law, is known as a parate execute and is invalid.

Notwithstanding section 3(1)(b) of the Act, a registrar need not examine any provisions relating to a bond which are not relevant to the registration of the bond.

15. Domicilium citandi et executandi

16. Execution clause
DIFFERENT TYPES OF BONDS

1. COLLATERAL BOND: an additional bond to secure a debt or obligation for which security has already been provided to the mortgagee. The same mortgagor, mortgagee and debt/obligation.

2. SURETY BOND: passed by a third party, as further security for a debt which has already been secured by the principal debtor (principal bond). For the surety to be fully liable = surety and co-principal debtor.

3. INDEMNITY BOND: the principal debtor indemnifies a person who undertook to comply with an obligation on behalf of a principal debtor, should he be compelled to comply with the obligation. - where one person stands surety for another person's debt, however the indemnity bond is passed by the original mortgagor in favour of the person standing surety.

4. COVERING BOND: is a special mortgage to secure future/fluctuating debts. It must be expressly declared to secure such debt, and a maximum amount must be expressly stipulated in the bond.

5. DEBENTURE BOND: if authorised by its MOI, a company may raise money by creating and issuing secured debts (debentures). Debentures are secured either by a notarial bond or a mortgage bond in favour of debenture holders or a trustee for the debenture holders.

6. KINDERBEWYS MORTGAGE BOND: where a surviving spouse passes a bond/notarial bond over property, in favour of the Master of the High Court, to secure a sum of money due to a child from the estate of the deceased spouse, and that sum of money is paid over to the ss

7. SUBSTITUTED BOND: replaces an existing bond. The mortgagee and the mortgagor must be the same, but the property does not have to be. The existing mortgage bond is cancelled on registration of substituted bond.

8. JUDICIAL MORTGAGE: this is not a bond in the usual sense, but it is in fact a recording of an attachment in terms of a court order, which is noted in the form of an interdict, against immovable property. This prohibits further bonds from being registered over the land.

9. KUSTINGSBRIEF: is a special mortgage bond in favour of the seller of land or a third party who advanced the purchase price, registered over immovable property to secure a principal debt (balance of the purchase price) incurred in respect of the purchased land. It is registered simultaneously with the deed of transfer.
   Requirements:
   a. It must be registered simultaneously with the deed of transfer
   b. It must secure the balance of the purchase price of the immovable property sold
   c. Since it is a first bond, the holder enjoys preference over other bondholders.
   d. The kustingsbrief bond must be registered over the property sold.
10. CHARGES: this is when the owner of the land owes money. It is not a mortgage bond, but is comparable to a servitude, as it attaches to the land. The debt it secures becomes the responsibility of the successors in title to the owner who incurred it. A charge enjoys preference in ranking above all existing bonds, even if no waiver of preference has been given. A charge is never drawn up by a conveyancer, but by the Land Bank.

11. ANNUITY BOND: if the party liable to pay the annuity cannot pay the annuity in one lump sum, an annuity bond can be registered to secure the regular payment of the annuity.

12. SECTIONAL MORTGAGE BOND: hypothecates units, leases over units, exclusive use areas, common property and real rights registered in a sectional title scheme. The Sectional Titles Act prescribes a specific format for a sectional bond – the bond conditions are contained in an annexure to the prescribed form. The bond is signed and executed by the mortgagor in the presence of the conveyancer, who also attests it. Thereafter it is merely registered in the Deeds Office – it is not executed by the conveyancer on behalf of the mortgagor in the presence of the registrar of deeds.

13. NOTARIAL BOND: the security under a notorial bond is movable property. Such bond are executed and attested before a notary public, whereafter it is simply registered (as opposed to executed) in the deeds registry.

14. PARTICIPATION MORTGAGE BOND: regulated by Collective Investment Schemes Control Act. It is a bond which is registered over immovable property in favour of a nominee company as mortgagee, and forms part of an investment scheme. It must rank as a first bond/parri passu. It is an investment scheme in terms of which members of the public are invited to invest in a scheme (for a minimum of 5 years) which lends money to members of the public and businesses against security of mortgage bonds over the debtor’s immovable property. The Act requires the following:
   a. the nominee company must be registered with the registrar of companies and must have as its main object, to act as nominee for or representative of any person.
   b. Participation mortgage bonds must be mortgage bonds over immovable property, registered in favour of a nominee company as mortgagee
   c. The debt secured by the participation mortgage bond is regarded as being owing to the participants in the scheme and not the nominee company.
   d. All the above participatory interests shall rank in preference concurrently with one another.
   e. A nominee company may not transfer, cede or encumber any of the rights under a participation mortgage bond without the written consent of the registrar of companies.
   f. Any collateral security obtained to secure the debt must also be registered in the name of the nominee company on behalf of the participants in the scheme.
POSSIBILITIES WITH BONDS

1. CANCELLATION OF MORTGAGE BONDS

GR: S56(1) DRA: mortgaged land may not be transferred unless it is cancelled or the land is released from the operation of the bond.

Exceptions in S56(1), where a mortgage bond need not be cancelled:
When the transfer of immovable property or cession of a bond is effected:
1. in accordance with a court order
2. by the trustee of an insolvent estate
3. by a liquidator of a company or cc which is unable to pay its debts and which is being wound up by or under the supervision of the court
4. by an executor administering and distributing an insolvent estate under section 34 of the Administration of Estates Act
5. in any other circumstances under the Act or any other law in terms of a court order.

2. RELEASE FROM MORTGAGE BONDS

Where more than one piece of land is hypothecated or there is more than one mortgagor, the mortgagee may consent to the release of one land / mortgagor.

When land is released – no longer serves as security for the debt.
When a person is released - the person is no longer bound to the mortgagee

There must still be another property under the bond to serve as security, or a person obliged to pay the debt, otherwise the bond will effectively be cancelled.

Consent by co-mortgagors is required

1. Release of part of co-mortgagor’s property
2. Release of all immovable property of one of the mortgagors
3. Consent – co-mortgagors and a Collateral Bond (there is no release of a person)
4. Surety - the consent of the principal debtor to the release of a surety’s property is not required. Where land is subdivided, the release of a portion of the land will only be allowed by the ROD, if the release takes place at the same time as the transfer of that portion.

3. CESSION OF MORTGAGE BONDS AND CANCELLATION OF Cessions

A cession is an agreement whereby rights are transferred from the holder thereof (the cedent) to another person (the cessionary). A distinction must be drawn between an out and out cession and a cession as security:

Out and out cession
A bond is ceded “out and out for value received” where the existing mortgagee has received payment and has no further interest in the bond whatsoever. The original mortgagee falls out of the picture and the cessionary becomes the new bondholder and acts as creditor against the mortgagor and may further cede the bond, either out and out or as security.
Cession as security (to secure payment of the cedents debt to the cessionary). A bond may be ceded by the mortgagee as security for repayment of debt incurred by that mortgagee. The cedent does not fall out of the picture and the cessionary may not further cede the bond. When the indebtedness is discharged, the causa in respect of the cession falls away, and the cession as security can be cancelled and the original mortgagee reverts to being the sole obligee, as against the mortgagor.

4. SUBSTITUTION OF DEBTOR/MORTGAGOR BY ENDORSEMENT

One person is substituted for another as mortgagor under a mortgage bond. The new mortgagor is then fully liable for the debt to the mortgagee. The original mortgagor is released from any obligation and payment.

Various possible substitutions of a debtor:

- Section 24bis(3) Substitution of mortgagor by endorsement

S24bis(3): If land is mortgaged, an endorsement to transfer ownership on dissolution of a partnership should not be affixed unless:
1. the mortgage bond is cancelled; or
2. the mortgagee consents in writing to the substitution.

- Section 45(2)(c) substitution of mortgagor by endorsement

Where property in a joint estate vests to the surviving spouse and is transferred in terms of section 45, and the property is mortgaged, the bond must be lodged for disposal:
1. for cancellation
2. for the release of the property / the deceased’s share in the property, or
3. for the substitution of the surviving spouse as the sole debtor.

- Section 57 substitution of debtor under a bond

When the mortgagor/seller of land has a bond over that land and the purchaser takes over the bond when purchasing all the land, the purchaser may be substituted as mortgagor under the bond.

If two/more transferees are substituted, they must renounce the exception de duobus vel pluribus reis debendi. Waiver of this exception means that each transferee is jointly and severally liable for the debt.

A surviving spouse may be substituted as mortgagor when acquiring property which is subject to an existing bond from the estate of the deceased spouse.

When a debtor may not be substituted under section 57

1. if the mortgagor is a trustee, executor or a liquidator
2. If the mortgaged property is not transferred in its entirety.
3. If the existing mortgagor reserves a real right for himself, e.g. a usufruct
4. If the new owner is not competent to mortgage the land, eg a minor
5. When the bond secures the obligations of a surety
6. Two / more mortgagors may not be substituted in the place of one mortgagor.
5. PART PAYMENTS

If a mortgagor has paid part of the amount due on a fixed debt which is secured under a mortgage bond, this payment can be endorsed on the bond, thereby reducing the amount secured by the bond. A part payment can be registered only if the bond does not secure future debts. The registration of a part payment does not serve any purpose while the cover afforded by the bond remains unaltered, because the amount owed by the debtor can fluctuate at any stage. Only the mortgagee can consent to the registration of a part payment.

The mortgagor’s consent is not required.

6. REDUCTION IN COVER

A reduction in cover is registered against a covering bond to reduce the extent of the security afforded by the covering bond. A reduction in cover can only be registered in respect of a bond which secures future debts.

7. WAIVER OF PREFERENCE

Section 3(1)(i) DRA: waivers of preference in respect of registered real rights in land in favour of mortgage bonds may be registered against
- bonds already registered, and
- bonds about to be registered.

Where preference is to be waived in respect of a bond about to be registered it is waived on the authority of a power of attorney from the holder of the real right.

Waivers of preference may be prepared by a conveyancer, notary or attorney, while a consent must be prepared by a conveyancer.

Where two bonds, to be executed simultaneously, purport to rank pari passu, no waiver is necessary if the ranking clauses in both powers of attorney are clear as to the intention.

If a bond is lodged and the ranking clause indicates a waiver of preference or pari passu ranking, the existing bondholder must waive preference, even if he is the holder of both bonds (section 3(1)(h) DRA).

Section (3)(1)(s): AGREEMENTS VARYING THE TERMS OF A BOND

In terms of section (3)(1)(s), the following terms may not be varied:
1. conditions relating to the cause of the debt
2. conditions relating to the mortgaged security
3. conditions relating to the amount of the debt secured by the bond
4. conditions relating to any additional amounts (costs clause).

The ROD will refuse to register a variation agreement in terms of section 3(1)(s) which changes the character of the bond. Conditions can only be varied by agreement. The amending deeds should be annexed to the agreement.

CLS notes do not replace prescribed materials. Publishing, sale and/or distribution of CLS notes in any manner or form is strictly prohibited and constitutes a breach of copyright.
SEQUENCE OF DEEDS

Section 14 DRA: The transfer of ownership of property and other real rights must be registered by means of a deed/endorsement, in the name of each person who successively becomes entitled to the property or right. – (requires that transfers must follow the sequence).

The main purpose of section 14 is
- to ensure there are comprehensive deeds registry records, and

1. APPLICATIONS FOR THE AMENDMENT OF AN ERROR - S 4(1)(b)

An error in a registered deed can only be amended in terms of section 4(1)(b) DRA. The error must have been an error at the date of registration of the deed, and should not have become an error after registration.
